

INSTITUT FÜR AMERIKANISTIK

Dr. Silvia Schultermandl

Attemsgasse 25/II, 8010 Graz, Austria/EU
Tel. +43 (316) 380-2465
Fax.+43 (316) 380-9768
Email: silvia.schultermandl@uni-graz.at
<http://www.uni-graz.at/silvia.schultermandl/>

Dr. Maria-Sabina Draga Alexandru
American Studies Center
Faculty of Foreign Languages and Literatures
University of Bucharest
Str. Pitar Mos 7-13
Bucharest 1, 010451
Romania

Graz, September 19, 2013

Manuscript submission to “Contributions to Transnational Feminism”

Dear Dr. Draga Alexandru:

I hereby acknowledge receipt of your manuscript submission, Between History and Personal Narrative: Eastern European Women’s Stories of Migration in the New Millennium, as Volume 4 of LIT Verlag’s book series “Contributions to Transnational Feminism.” As publication date, the press has set November 7th.

As agreed per our contract, the book’s front matter will include the acknowledgment of the UEFISCDI project Women’s Narratives of Transnational Relocation (PN-II-RU-TE-2011-3-0159, contract 118/2011) and will bear the official logo of the University of Graz who kindly aided in the financial realization of this publication.

I look forward to seeing the book in print shortly and thank you for your contribution. I agree with the general comments offered by the peer-reviewers that this book offers some much-needed contextualization of Eastern European women’s narratives of migration and the field of transnational feminism.

Sincerely,

Silvia Schultermandl
Series Editor